This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

AN ACT

TO INCORPORATE "THE UNION LEAGUE CLUB" OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

PASSED FEBRUARY 16, 1865.

AS AMENDED BY CHAP. 160, LAWS OF 1867, PASSED MARCH 26, 1867.
AS AMENDED BY CHAP. 423, LAWS OF 1874, PASSED MAY 11, 1874.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Cornelius R. Agnew, Horatio Allen, James W. Beekman, Henry W. Bellows, Francis B. Cutting, John A. Dix, Wolcott Gibbs, John C. Green, George Griswold, David Hoadley, Murray Hoffman, William J. Hoppin, Charles King, Charles H. Marshall, Willard Parker, George T. Strong, Jonathan Sturges, Otis D. Swan, Moses Taylor, and such other persons as now are members of an Association in the city of New York called "The Union League Club," and such persons as hereafter shall become members of the corporation hereby created, are constituted a body corporate, by the name of "The Union League Club," to be located in the city of New York, to promote, encourage, and sustain, by all proper means, absolute and unqualified loyalty to the Government of the United States; to discountenance and rebuke, by moral and social influences, all disloyalty to said Government, and every attempt against the integrity of the nation; and in furtherance of these objects, to establish and maintain a Library and a Gallery of Art and Military Trophies, especially devoted to the perpetuation and illustration of the patriotic services and sacrifices by which the existing struggle against rebellion has been characterized.

SEC. 2. Said corporation shall have power to make and adopt a constitution, by-laws, rules, and regulations for the admission, suspension, and expulsion of its members, and their government, the collection of fees and dues, the number and election of its officers, and to define their duties, and for the safe-keeping of its property, and from time to time to alter, modify, or change such constitution, by-laws, rules, and regulations. Until an election shall be held pursuant to such constitution, by-laws, rules, and regulations, the officers, for the time being, of the Association mentioned in the first section of this act shall be the officers of the corporation hereby created.

SEC. 3. Said corporation may purchase and hold, or lease, any real or personal estate necessary and proper for the purpose of its incorporation, provided they shall not hold any real estate the value of which shall exceed fifteen hundred thousand dollars; and the said corporation may issue bonds and may execute mortgages upon their real estate to an amount not exceeding the value of such real estate and the improvements thereon.

SEC. 4. Said corporation shall possess the general powers, and be subject to the restrictions and liabilities described in the third title of the eighteenth chapter of the first part of the Revised Statutes.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect immediately.

The Union League Club

OF NEW YORK.

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION.

1. The condition of membership shall be absolute and unqualified loyalty to the Government of the United States, and unwavering support of its efforts for the suppression of the Rebellion.

2. The primary object of the Association shall be to discountenance and rebuke, by moral and social influences, all disloyalty to the Federal Government, and to that end the members will use every proper means in public and private.

3. We pledge ourselves, by every means in our power, collectively and individually, to resist to the uttermost every attempt against the territorial integrity of the nation.

ADDITIONAL ARTICLE OF ASSOCIATION, ADOPTED JANUARY 11, 1866.

4. It shall be the duty of the Club to resist and expose corruption, and promote reform in our National, State, and Municipal affairs; and to elevate the idea of American citizenship.

By-Laws.

OF OFFICERS AND THEIR DUTIES.

1. The officers of the Union League Club shall be a President, twelve Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and the members of the following Standing Committees: Executive Committee, Finance Committee, Committee on Admissions, Committee on Library and Publications, Committee on Art, Committee on Political Reform, and Auditing Committee; all of whom shall be elected by the members of the Club, at the annual meetings, and shall serve until their successors shall have been elected respectively, except so far as is otherwise provided by By-Law No. 17.

2. The Vice-Presidents shall be divided into three classes of four each. The annual election, to be held on the 14th day of January, 1892, shall be for twelve, who shall classify themselves by lot, four of whom to hold office for one year, four to hold office for two years, and four to hold office for three years; and thereafter each annual election shall be for four to hold office for three years.

3. The President, or, in his absence, the Vice-President senior in order of election, and present, shall preside at all meetings of the Club. In the absence of the President and all the Vice-Presidents, a presiding officer shall be chosen, without ballot, from the members of the Club. The President shall be, ex officio, a member of the Executive and other Standing Committees.

4. The Secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the Club, and of the Executive Committee and the Committee on Admissions (of which Committees he shall be, ex officio, a member), and of all matters of which a record shall be deemed advisable by the Club, or by said Committees. The records of the Secretary, except those of the proceedings of the Committee on Admissions, shall, at all reasonable times, be open to the inspection of any member of the Club. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to notify members of their election, to keep a roll of the members of the Club, to issue notices for all meetings of the Club (with a brief mention of the business to be transacted when a special meeting is called), and to conduct the correspondence. He shall also be the keeper of the seal of the Club.

5. The Treasurer shall collect, and, under the direction of the Executive Committee, disburse the funds. He shall keep the accounts of the Club in books belonging to it, which shall be at all times open to inspection of the Executive Committee; he shall report in writing, at each quarterly meeting of the Executive Committee, the balance of money on hand, and the outstanding obligations of the Club as far as practicable, and he shall make a full report, at the annual meeting of the Club, of the receipts and disbursements of the past year, with such suggestions as to the financial management of the Club as he may deem proper. He shall turn over to the Finance Committee all initiation fees when received, and at the end of each year all surplus and unappropriated moneys which remain in his hands after payment in full of the disbursements and expenses of such year. He shall be, ex officio, a member of the Executive Committee and Committee on Admissions.

6. The Secretary and the Treasurer shall respectively have power, with the approval of the Executive Committee, to employ at the expense of the Club, such clerical aid as may be necessary in the discharge of their duties.

7. The general affairs of the Club shall be managed by the Executive Committee, consisting of fifteen members. The Executive Committee shall, subject in all respects (except as to expenditures) to such instructions and limitations as may be from time to time prescribed by the Club, exercise a general superintendence over the internal affairs of the Club; shall control and manage its property; and enforce the preservation of order and obedience to its rules. All appropriations of the funds of the Club, except as provided in the 16th By-Law, and all directions for the use of the Hall or Club-rooms for other than for Club purposes, shall be made by the Executive Committee. It shall make all necessary purchases and contracts, but shall have no power to make the Club liable for any debt or debts to an amount exceeding one-half that which, at the time of contracting the same, shall be in the Treasurer's hands in cash, and not subject to prior liabilities, or which cannot in the opinion of the Committee be paid out of the income of the current year. At every annual meeting it shall report its proceedings, and may, at any time, recommend such measures as it may deem advisable. The Executive Committee shall appoint a House Committee of three members, and may from time to time declare their duties. Whenever a Special Committee of the Club at large shall be appointed, a majority thereof shall be those not members of the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee is divided into three classes of five members each, and hereafter each annual election shall be for five members of said Committee, to hold office three years, to supply the place of the class retiring each year, and for such additional number, if any, as may be necessary to fill vacancies, to hold office during the remainder of the terms of the members whose places they fill.

No member of the Club who may have served on the Committee for three successive years shall, after the next annual election, be eligible again until at least one year after the expiration of his previous term of office.

8. The Executive Committee shall meet at least once in each month for the transaction of business, and eight members thereof shall be a quorum, except during the months of June, July, August, September, and October, when five members shall constitute a quorum.

9. The Committee on Admissions shall consist of fifteen members, and shall be divided into three classes of five members each. The annual election to be held on the 13th day of January, 1887, shall be for fifteen members, five of whom to hold office for one year, five to hold office for two years, five to hold office for three years, and thereafter each annual election shall be for five members of said Committee, to hold office for three years. The names and residences of all persons proposed for admission, with the name and signature of the member proposing them, and of the member seconding them, and date of posting, shall be first posted in a conspicuous place in the Club-house, at least fifteen days. They shall then be referred to the Committee on Admissions, the proceedings of which Committee thereon shall be secret and confidential, and no member of such Committee shall be questioned as to the action of the Committee. It shall be the duty of the Committee to make careful examination, and to consider all communications in reference to each individual proposed; they shall pass upon each name separately; but they shall not at any time pass upon any greater number of names than there are at that time vacancies to be filled under the 31st By-Law. Two negative votes in the Committee shall prevent the recommendation of any person for membership. The Committee shall fix its own place and time of meeting. At every monthly meeting the Committee shall report the names of such persons proposed as they recommend for admission; and the Club shall thereupon proceed to vote, by ballot, upon the names so recommended. Negative votes to the number of one third of those cast shall exclude any person. Members shall be elected only at the regular monthly meeting, but any non-resident member may at any time be classed as a resident member, by signifying his intention to that effect to the Treasurer, and paying a further admission fee of one hundred and fifty dollars, and he shall henceforth pay the full annual dues.

10. No person shall be proposed or admitted to be a member of the Club who is not at the time a citizen of the United States, having a right to vote, and who does not answer to the following requirements of the original Articles of Association of the Club:

"The condition of membership shall be absolute and unqualified loyalty to the Government of the United States."

And every person elected a member shall pledge himself to do all in his power to carry out the primary objects of the Club, which are to discountenance and rebuke by moral and social influences, and by all proper means, both in public and private, all disloyalty to the Federal Government, and to resist to the uttermost every attempt against the territorial integrity of the nation.

11. No candidate who shall have failed to be elected by the Club shall be again proposed for one year, except upon the recommendation of the Executive Committee, such recommendation to be posted at least two weeks prior to a monthly meeting.

If any person elected shall not, within three months after notice of his election, left at or sent to his address, as specified by the member proposing him, signify his acceptance and pay his admission fee and annual dues, he shall be deemed to have declined to become a member.

12. The Committee on Library and Publications shall consist of seven members, and shall have charge of the Library and Reading-room, with authority to expend such sums of money upon the same as may be voted therefor by the Executive Committee or procured by voluntary subscription.

13. The Committee on Art shall consist of seven members. It shall be the duty of the Committee to expend such sums as shall be appropriated by the Executive Committee, or obtained by voluntary subscription, for procuring works of art and relics, and to make all proper efforts to enlarge and display the collection; and to procure and display in the Club-house from time to time loan collections of works of art.

14. The Auditing Committee shall consist of three persons, two of whom shall be a quorum. The duty of the Auditing Committee shall be to audit and settle the accounts of the Treasurer and Finance Committee, and to present their report thereof at each annual meeting.

15. The Committee on Political Reform shall consist of thirteen members, and shall have general charge of all matters coming under the Fourth Article of the Association, with authority to expend such sums of money as shall be appropriated to them by the Executive Committee or obtained by voluntary subscription.

16. The Finance Committee shall consist of five members, none of whom shall at the time of their election be members of the Executive Committee. They shall be elected by the Club by ballot at a regular meeting thereof, and only upon the nomination of the Executive Committee, which nomination shall be made at a regular meeting previous to that at which such election takes place.

The members of said Committee shall hold their offices until death, resignation, or removal for cause, and every vacancy occurring in the said Committee shall be filled by the Club on the nomination of the Executive Committee, in the same manner and under the same restrictions as hereinbefore provided.

The Treasurer of the Club shall pay over to the said Committee all initiation fees, when received, and at the end of each year all surplus and unappropriated moneys which remain in his hands after payment in full of the disbursements and expenses of such year.

The moneys, the securities, and the proceeds of the securities so received by the said Finance Committee shall be invested in the securities of the United States or of the State of New York, or in such other securities as are considered by them safe and competent investment for Trust funds. Full power and authority is conferred upon the said Finance Committee to collect and receive such income, interest, and profits, and from time to time dispose of the said securities for the purposes aforesaid, and which shall continue to be invested as a reserve fund, until the further resolution of the Club, in relation thereto, adopted upon the same notice which is required for an amendment by these By-Laws.

17. Any officer may be removed for cause, at any meeting of the Club, upon two weeks' notice, and any vacancy in any office may be filled for the residue of the term by the Club, at any meeting thereof, except as herein otherwise provided.

Neglect on the part of any member of a Standing or Special Committee to attend three consecutive meetings of such Committee, shall be deemed a tender of his resignation of his office, which the Committee may accept, unless an explanation of such neglect, satisfactory to the Committee, shall be given.

Every Standing Committee, except the Finance Committee, shall have power to fill any vacancy in its membership until the next annual election, which shall be more than ten days after the vacancy occurs.

OF MEETINGS.

18. The annual meeting of the Club shall be held on the second Thursday of January, for the election of officers and the transaction of such other business as may come before it.

The general meeting shall be held at eight o'clock P.M., but the polls for the election shall be opened at half-past six o'clock P.M., and they shall remain open for three hours.

At the monthly meeting in December in each year, a Committee of seven shall be chosen by the Club at large, who shall select and post in a conspicuous place in the Club-house, at least ten days before the annual meeting, the name of a candidate for each office to be filled at the ensuing election. Any twenty-five members of the Club may propose seven names for the Nominating Committee. Such proposal shall be in writing, delivered to the Secretary, and posted at least twenty days before the December meeting. No member shall unite in the proposal of more than seven names for such Committee. At least ten days before the December meeting, the Secretary shall mail to each member of the Club a printed list of all the names so proposed. At the December meeting the Club shall elect such Committee by ballot. Each member present may vote by ballot for such Committee by marking seven of the names upon such list with ink or pencil, and depositing the list so marked as a ballot for the names so marked. The seven members upon such list receiving the highest number of votes shall be the Nominating Committee. At the same meeting three inspectors and canvassers of the ensuing election shall be elected in such manner as shall then be determined, any two of whom shall be a quorum, and if vacancies shall occur, they may be filled at or before the election by the Executive Committee.

The rules and orders of Cushing's Manual shall govern the meetings of the Club, so far as they are applicable and not inconsistent with these By-Laws.

One hundred members shall be a quorum at all meetings of the Club.

19. There shall be a monthly meeting, for the election of members and the transaction of business, on the second Thursday of every month, except July and August, at 8 P.M.

20. Special meetings of the Club may be called at any time by order of the President, with the approval of three members of the Executive Committee, and shall be called by the Secretary whenever the President or any Vice-President shall be thereunto requested in writing by twenty-five members, setting forth the purpose of such meeting. At any such special meeting no business, other than that specified in the call, shall be considered except by unanimous consent.

21. At the meetings of the Club the order of business, so far as the character and nature of the meetings may admit, shall be as follows:

1. Reading the minutes of the last meeting.
2. Election of new members.
3. Reports of Standing Committees.
4. Reports of Special Committees.
5. General business.

But this order of business may be changed by a majority of the meeting.

All Special Committees for any purpose shall be appointed by the presiding officer, unless otherwise ordered.

Whenever any resolution or action shall be proposed or pending in the Club, which calls for the expression of its opinion touching any public matter, if the same be objected to by any member, and such objection be seconded, it shall at once be the duty of the presiding officer to state the objection, and to call upon those who sustain the same to rise; and if twenty-five members shall rise in support of such objection, then such resolution, and subject of the proposed action, shall be referred to a Standing or Special Committee, who shall report thereon at the next meeting of the Club. And upon the coming in of such report, the same, and the resolutions, and the subject referred to, shall be deemed before the Club for discussion and action thereon, without further right of such objection.

No member shall be permitted to speak more than once on the same subject, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without the unanimous consent of the Club.

22. No person, not a member of the Club, shall be present at any meeting thereof, unless he shall be specially invited by the President or the House Committee.

23. All elections, except as otherwise provided, shall be by ballot, and a majority of votes cast shall be sufficient, except for the election of new members.

The Secretary shall furnish to the inspectors of elections, prior to the annual meeting, an alphabetical list of all members entitled to vote for officers at the ensuing election. The Secretary shall see that all By-Laws regulating the elections of the Club are published at least once, as required by statute, and the inspectors of the election shall, before acting, take the oath also required by statute.

24. Proxies shall not be permitted.

OF MEMBERS.

25. No member shall receive any salary, emolument, or profit from the funds of the Club, unless the same be especially appropriated by the Club and the Executive Committee.

26. No member shall give any money or gratuity to a servant of the Club.

27. All resignations shall be made, in writing, to the Executive Committee; but if made after the second Thursday of January, such resignation shall not discharge the member presenting it from his dues for the current year. All interest in the property of the Club, of members resigning, or otherwise ceasing to be members, shall be vested in the Club.

28. If the conduct of a member shall appear to the Executive Committee to be disorderly, ungentlemanly, in violation of the rules, prejudicial to the interests or character of the Club, or contrary to its Charter or By-Laws; or if, by his acts or conversation, he shall seem to the Committee to manifest a spirit of disloyalty to the Government of the United States, the Committee shall inform him thereof in writing, and, if the nature of the offence in its opinion require it, may suspend him from the privileges of the Club for a period not exceeding six months, or request him to resign.

29. Should such information or request be disregarded, the Executive Committee shall refer the matter to the next stated meeting of the Club, or to a special meeting thereof, of which reference not less than two weeks' written notice shall be given to the offending member.

30. At such meeting the nature of the offence shall be considered, and the member complained of may be censured or expelled by a vote of a majority of the members present. A vote involving censure or expulsion shall be decided by ballot.

31. The total membership of the Club, liable for annual dues, shall not exceed sixteen hundred.

The admission fee of members elected hereafter shall be three hundred dollars. The annual dues of resident members shall be seventy-five dollars, and the annual dues of non-resident members shall be forty-five dollars, payable in advance, on the second Thursday of January, at which time the fiscal year shall commence. If not paid within thirty days thereafter, the name of the delinquent shall be posted by the Treasurer in a conspicuous place in the Club-house; and should he neglect payment, without good cause, until the first day of March, he shall thereupon cease to be a member. Provided, That upon his written application, and the payment of all dues to the date thereof, the Executive Committee may, upon such terms as it may deem proper, remit the penalty of this By-Law; of all which the Secretary shall make a minute. And provided further, That the penalty of this By-Law shall not apply to the case of a resident member who may be ill or absent from the city of New York. No member, while classed as a non-resident, shall be entitled to vote.

32. Any member who has paid an admission fee and the annual dues for one year, and who may be absent from the city of New York in a foreign country for a continuous period of a year, shall be exempted from the payment of the annual dues for the period of his absence, if he shall give previous written notice to the Treasurer of his intention so to be absent.

Report of the Executive Committee

FOR 1890.

To the Union League Club:

The Executive Committee in presenting its annual report takes pleasure in expressing its gratification that at all stated and special meetings of the Club during the year a quorum has been present, showing the interest the members of the Committee feel in the Club's welfare,—the harmony and good feeling existing among the members of the Club at large, and the increased comforts enjoyed by them through the careful supervision of the House Committee appointed to superintend its internal affairs.

The substitution of electric lights in the cafés and halls of the first-floor for gas has been a subject of approval by all, relieving the temperature of the rooms during the summer months from oppressive heat to one of comparative comfort. The replacing of new furniture and carpets where required, and painting many parts of the house, has made the Club a home of comfort and luxury that is appreciated by every one.

The comparative statement submitted by the House Committee at a special meeting of this Committee was unanimously approved and ordered to be sent to each member, and makes a clear statement of the condition of the Club's affairs.

An explanation which should have accompanied the statement may here be made in regard to the difference in figures between the comparative statement of 1889–1890 and those in the five-years' statement. In the two-years' statement, the accounts "unpaid bills" and "stock on hand," which appeared in the five-years' statement, are charged into the various accounts where they belonged, whether paid or not. It does not affect the balance. For example: the item Rent, Insurance, and Taxes appears in the five-years' statement as $25,143.45; but among the laid-over bills was one for Water Tax for 1890 of $433.20; so this was added, making the amount in the two-years' comparison $25,576.65, and so with the other items.

All of this work has been done at an expense not exceeding very much the ordinary outlay of previous years; but added to this was the expense of the reception tendered to the Pan-American Congress in December of last year, also one to General William T. Sherman, the two receptions aggregating twelve thousand dollars ($12,000), and the payment of $8,697.00 of unpaid bills carried over from the previous year, leaving a deficit of $7,213.00 after liquidating all outstanding bills and indebtedness created during the fiscal year, which begins December first in each year, showing that the Club is practically free from debt, owning its Club-house and contents in such condition as to require but a small annual outlay to keep it attractive and enjoyable.

During the year we have been called upon to mourn the loss of thirty-one (31) of our members, among whom we find many of our staunchest and truest citizens and most earnest promoters of the Club's interests, viz.:

In referring to the earnest work of the Standing Committees, who will make their report to the Club, we cannot refrain from recalling to the minds of members the unique and varied exhibitions of the choicest art treasures to be found in the world through the untiring efforts of the Art Committee; and it is with great pleasure we note the gift to the Club of valuable art treasures on the part of Messrs. Thomas B. Clarke, Brayton Ives, James A. Garland, Samuel P. Avery, Charles Stewart Smith, Cyrus J. Lawrence, William L. Andrews, Henry Sampson, George R. Sheldon, Samuel T. Peters, William G. Nichols, Robert W. VanBoskerck, James I. Raymond, H. LeGrand Cannon, Henry W. Watrous, Dr. Alfred E. M. Purdy, James W. Ellsworth, and Prof. Elie Charlier; and we would not omit the meed of praise justly earned by the considerate care of the Library Committee and the valuable contributions of the Committee on Political Reform.

And last, but not least, do we find ourselves under many obligations to the Committee on Admissions for their earnestness in the responsible duties devolving upon them in selecting from the applicants for admission to membership those who revere the traditions of the Club and will endeavor to carry out the purposes of its founders.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

M. W. COOPER,
Chairman.

Report of the Committee on Library and Publications.

The Committee of Library and Publications have the honor to report as follows:

Your Committee have departed somewhat from the policy of the previous committees in not purchasing very many new publications. The larger portion of the appropriation left at the disposal of the Committee, after paying for the various periodicals furnished to the Reading-Room, has been expended in filling up the incomplete sets of works of different authors; in binding and repairing, and the purchase of certain books, of long-established reputation, needed in the Library. The absence of such books was discovered by a comparison of the catalogue of our Library with those of other clubs containing a similar class of literature.

Future committees will undoubtedly experience the difficulties heretofore found in regard to the purchase of expensive publications needed by the Library, which could not be done from the general appropriation without crippling the Committee in the purchase of other equally necessary books and periodicals. It will also soon be desirable, owing to the increase of the Library, to make another catalogue. Such demands would therefore necessitate an application to the Executive Committee for a special appropriation for such purposes.

The present Committee, therefore, in order to avoid such a contingency, would recommend such change in the By-Laws of the Club as would enable the surplus saved by one committee to go into a special fund devoted exclusively to the Library, so that in the course of a few years the Library would be either almost self-sustaining, or in a position to purchase any valuable work, at auction or otherwise, or to issue a catalogue, without a request for special appropriations, such request being at all times an unpleasant one for any committee to be compelled to make.

We further desire to call attention to the apparent discrepancy between the expenditures reported by the Committee and that recently sent to members of the Club entitled "Statements of Receipts and Expenditures."

The Treasurer's fiscal year closes with the bills audited in December, whereas the Library Committee's fiscal year closes with those audited in January. The amounts of audited bills carried over to January of each year are as follows:

1886 to 1887	$622.98
1887 to 1888	423.22
1888 to 1889	457.01
1889 to 1890	489.81
1890 to 1891	295.85

It is for this reason that though our report shows an expenditure of $3,701.22, we are apparently charged by the Treasurer with $3,895.18.

The constantly increasing demand of members for additional newspapers and periodicals causes the larger portion of the appropriation to be expended for such purposes, this amounting, in the last year, to $2,649.43, which was over 71 per cent. of the money expended by the Library Committee.

Appended will be found a list of the periodicals received by the Club, together with the list of donors of books to the Library, and a tabulated statement of the expenditures of the Committee.

Report of the Committee on Art.

NEW YORK, January 8, 1891.

The Art Committee respectfully submits its annual report, and invites attention to the review of its six exhibitions of pictures and art objects. The Committee was selected to take charge of the decoration of the Club-house upon the occasion of the reception given on April 17, 1890 in honor of General W. T. Sherman.

An average of about sixty paintings has been shown at each meeting; these pictures have been in oil, water-color, or pastel, by famous Old Masters and distinguished modern artists of Europe and America. The last exhibition is composed exclusively of the works of our native painters.

There have also been six art-object displays. At the February meeting Persian and Indian art was shown; in March, old miniatures, boxes, and fans were displayed; in April, ancient and modern artistic glass was offered; in November, antique silver was considered; at the December meeting, illuminated books and manuscripts filled the cases; and at the sixth and final meeting this evening, the walls of the large hall are embellished with the rarest of textile fabrics, and the cabinets and alcoves of the gallery are permanently enriched with the gifts of antique Oriental porcelains, which emphasize the retirement of the Committee from the consideration of other art objects in the near future.

Referring to the report of the previous Art Committee, where Oriental art was considered in five exhibitions, and Greek art in a sixth, it has been stated that in the two years no art society, institute, or private club in this country has equalled the high average and comprehensiveness of these twelve displays.

Last year the Art Committee suggested that a fixed sum of money should be annually appropriated for the purchase of paintings by American artists, when favorable opportunities offered.

In February last such an advantageous opportunity came, and the Executive Committee promptly voted the sum of two thousand dollars for the purpose. A result of this action was the purchase of the marine masterpiece entitled, "Morning-Isle of Shoals," by the lamented American painter, Arthur Quartley. The sum paid was fourteen hundred and fifty dollars.

As this sum appears in the Art Committee expenditures of 1890 an erroneous impression is conveyed that the operating expenses of the Committee have increased over those of 1889–90. When this amount shall be deducted from the total, it will be found that the expenses of the present Art Committee show a decrease of $403.78 from last year.

In December the noted picture by Homer Martin entitled "Saranac Lake," was purchased at the Otis sale for $350.00. This sum, with the Quartley purchase, still leaves a balance unexpended of the amount voted for art purchases by the Executive Committee.

The Art Committee has the pleasure to announce the gift of a large picture from Professor Elie Charlier; the subject of this important canvas is "The Jungfrau," and the work has already given much pleasure to the members and guests of the Club.

The Executive Committee of the Club has been informed of, and has accepted, a beautiful and valuable collection of antique Oriental porcelains, as the property of the Club, which, it is hoped, will enhance its artistic reputation and condition.

The following named gentlemen have contributed the rare pieces of blue and white porcelain displayed in Case A:

Brayton Ives, Samuel P. Avery, George R. Sheldon, Henry Sampson, W. L. Andrews, James W. Ellsworth, James A. Garland, Charles Stewart Smith, Cyrus J. Lawrence, Samuel I. Peters, William G. Nichols, Robert W. Van Boskerck, and others.

The large color pieces occupying the alcoves in the main gallery are contributed by:

Dr. A. E. M. Purdy, H. LeGrand Cannon, Harry W. Watrous, James I. Raymond.

In Case B there is a single gift of more than forty specimens of various colors in antique Chinese porcelains; the most prized tints are all represented. The donor of this collection is a member of the Art Committee.

Having, in twelve consecutive displays, gone over the field of art-object collecting so generously, it is quite unlikely that the Committee will attempt further monthly exhibitions in this direction. Contributions to the Oriental department, it is hoped, will increase, so that, in this branch, our Club may eventually own a matchless collection.

It is worth mentioning, that in handling property of great value, embracing objects of minuteness and frailty, not a single article has been lost or injured. Within the past two years the expenses of gathering, protecting, and returning these precious things naturally show an increase over the expenditures of the Art Committees of other years, when paintings alone were shown.

The field of art-object exhibitions having ended, possibly, with the presentation to the Club, the operating expenses of the Art Committee for the ensuing year will be diminished accordingly.

In no case has a request for art loans from the Committee been refused. On the contrary, a most generous acquiescence has been the rule; and amateur and dealer alike have frequently tendered their finest possessions for exhibitions. The task of the Art Committee has in consequence been lessened each month by this magnanimity and courteous co-operation of the owners of artistic property in this and other cities.

THOMAS B. CLARKE,
Chairman.

Report of the Committee on Political Reform.

UNION LEAGUE CLUB,
January 8, 1891.

The Committee on Political Reform respectfully submits the following report:

Various subjects have been considered by your Committee within the past year, although but three reports have been brought before the Club during that time. The Committee have been mindful of the desire of the Club not to be asked to express its opinion except upon matters of general importance. It has recognized the repeated declarations of the Club that it is a Republican Club, and that all its actions taken upon public questions shall be in harmony with the doctrines and policy of that political party. The principles of that party having been adopted by the country at the last Presidential election, it was not deemed wise or necessary during the past year to restate them before the Club. The last Congressional elections having shown an apparent reversal of the former decision by the country, there will probably be a renewal of the discussion of these principles—in which discussion this Club will no doubt take a prominent part.

It is not the province of this Committee in its annual report to discuss the causes and influences that led to our defeat, but this Committee deem this a fitting occasion to declare its firm faith in the doctrines of the party, and its belief that the country will again declare itself in its favor, when the misrepresentations and the false presentations of its policy and the effects of its policy are exposed and understood.

At the January meeting this Committee made a report in favor of the Saxton Ballot-Reform Bill, which report was unanimously adopted by the Club. The act as finally passed by the Legislature of New York was not all that was desired by those who were foremost in this important reform. Yet it is believed that great and desirable advance has been made in this matter.

At the February meeting the Committee made a report upon a bill then pending before the Legislature entitled: "An act to secure to children the benefits of an elementary education and making an appropriation therefor." It was with great reluctance that the Committee reported against some of the provisions of this bill, fearing that it might be construed as opposition to the common school system that is so important to the country. The bill was deemed to be so fundamentally wrong, in providing a scheme that invaded the sacred rights of the home and family, that the Committee felt constrained to report against it. The report was adopted by the Club, and a copy of the same sent to each member of the Legislature. It is believed that the report had considerable influence in defeating the objectionable legislation.

At the March meeting the Committee reported in favor of a more liberal appropriation by Congress for the work of the Civil-Service Commission. This Club has always been a staunch supporter of the doctrine of Civil-Service Reform. It has at times criticised the pretenses of those who use the name of "Civil-Service Reform" for mere partisan advantage, but has always cast whatever influence it may possess on the side of fitness and integrity as essential qualities for official positions. It is believed that this reform has been heretofore greatly aided by this Club, and that hereafter on all proper occasions it will be found in the front ranks of its supporters and defenders.

Among the events of the year the Committee reports with unfeigned sorrow the death of one of its members, Mr. Franklin A. Paddock. He has been a member of the Committee five years. For a portion of that time he was in poor health and unable to attend the meetings of the Committee. When able to do so he was constant in his attendance and was an able and conscientious member. In the close intimacy of the Committee Room we all learned to respect and admire him. A memorial of Mr. Paddock was prepared by one of his associates on the Committee and entered in the minutes, a copy of which memorial has been sent to each member of the Club.

Respectfully submitted.

Address of Chauncey M. Depew.

Address of Chauncey M. Depew.

GENTLEMEN:—I feel that I ought to interrupt the business of the evening to acknowledge the compliment of a sixth election as your President. It is an honor unusually gratifying and satisfactory.

The occasion presents suggestions worthy of our earnest consideration. There are clubs and clubs, but there is only one Union League of New York. The history of this organization is unique and distinguished. It owed its origin to the necessity for some practical expression of the most ardent and devout patriotic sentiments. It has never failed in its fidelity and support of the best and highest public interest. When the majority of the influences in this city during the civil war were hostile to the Government, this Club was the rallying-place of the friends of nationality and liberty. Its members did not limit their enthusiasm to resolutions and to speeches; their money flowed like water into the sanitary and hospital service for the army. They sent a Thanksgiving dinner to the Boys in Blue on the Potomac; they raised regiments and equipped them for the service; they had the courage at a time when it was unsafe for a colored man to be seen in the streets of the city to recruit and equip a regiment of black men, and march at their head through hostile crowds down Broadway as the regiment departed for the war.

But the public services of the Club have been equally as conspicuous and efficient during every year since. It gave its influence to the measures of reconstruction; it did yeoman service for the restoration of specie payment; it was one of the ablest and most efficient combatants of the heresies of fiat money, and an impregnable fortress of sound currency and honest finance. It has steadily fought corruption and misgovernment in the city and the State; it began the battle for registration and honest elections at the time of the fraudulent defeat of John A. Griswold for Governor in 1868, and has labored industriously for any legislation which would secure the untrammelled expression of the popular will, the right of every citizen to cast one vote, and the unquestioned count of that vote as it was cast.

In this sense the Union League has been, is, and I hope will always continue to be, a political club. It is also attached in its general principles to one of the great national parties, and that is one of the sources of the strength and reputation of the organization.

There are innumerable clubs in the city of New York. We have the most clubable population in the United States, if not in the world. I find it quite the natural thing to personally belong to eight of them. Men can find in the successful and prosperous clubs here exactly their own tastes and pursuits.

Clubable men in literature have their literary clubs; in society, their social clubs; in sporting matters, their jockey and yachting clubs; in college affairs, their university clubs; while the journalists and reporters have their own home, the players and dramatic authors theirs, and the different trade organizations theirs. We even keep alive the Greek-letter secret societies of our college days, and have places where we can gather according to our race and European origin. The membership of any one of these organizations is a pleasure or a necessity, but in no case a distinction. But a membership of the Union League Club is a decoration. Wherever the man who has this privilege may be in the country, it gives him in that community at once the position of belonging to a club of national power and reputation.

The Union League never dictates nominations; but a deference to the sentiment of this Club has elevated the standard of nominations. The Union League conspicuously failed, so far as any effort was made by its members, to control the patronage of the present administration, but the negative force of its approval was such that the President appointed no man to prominent position in New York unless he believed his appointment was up to the standard of the Union League.

There is no other organization in the country so national in its character. Its honorary membership has been sparingly bestowed, gladly accepted, and proudly acknowledged as an honor by the greatest names in American history since Abraham Lincoln. Leading statesmen in the different States in the Union are rapidly becoming members. I believe that if the constitution was liberalized we could have our pick of the most distinguished leaders of the Republican party in every State in the Union.

I wish that the Democratic party had in this city a club of equal influence and strength, and that the Independents, or Reformers, or whatever they may call themselves, who are too wise or too good for either party, could also in New York have a home which would be national in its representative character. I do not mean that these clubs should take the place or perform the duties in any respect of national or State or city committees, or of the organizations which look after the detail of party management and the practical conditions of party success, but that they should in a large way voice the sentiment, uphold the principles, sustain the policy, and suggest the measures of their parties; that they should speak out with emphatic and controlling voice upon questions affecting the public welfare, locally and generally.

The reasons for this statement and appeal are more far-reaching and profound than the triumph or defeat of the measures of the hour, than the success or failure of this or that party. The passion for nationality which was the product of the civil war has lost its fire. The sentiment of nationality has no rallying centre. Insensibly we grow more provincial and sectional. Capitals multiply as cities to which large territories are tributary for trade and intelligence increase in population, wealth, and local interests. The fear of centralization was the bugaboo of the fathers of the Republic, and has been the cause of most of our national disasters. The fear of the mob influences of great cities upon the Legislature was the mistake of the founders of the nation. So they put the State capitals in most instances at points remote from great centres of population and trade, and for the national capital created in the wilderness a home at a point where a city had no reason for existence, except as the seat of government. In studying the results of metropolitan centres in the Old World we can now see their mistake. London, Paris, Berlin, and Rome are focuses of national thought, pride, and unity. To them run all the railroads and electric wires, all the currents of local opinion and aspirations, of discontent or revolt. From these capitals flow constantly to the remotest corners of the country the wisest, the best, the strongest expressions of the collective wisdom of the land.

The student of legislation at Washington and at Albany has often been amazed by the spectacle of an apparent frenzy of a local excitement which existed nowhere else in the country. There will frequently arise heated controversies, resulting in the enactment of measures which on the spot seem to be a demand of the people, while the people exhibit no corresponding interest, or else an adverse tendency. The atmosphere of the capital is overcharged with electricity, and the appliances of the neighborhood are not equal to carrying it off. Much bad legislation, which results harmfully to the country and disastrously to its promoters, proceeds from these causes. The representatives have been absent for a long period from their constituents, and their associations and information are almost exclusively with and among themselves. There is nothing in the locality to keep them in touch with the popular pulse of the Nation. They lose the capacity to judge accurately the wants of their districts or of the Nation at large. No one can be in London during the session of Parliament and witness the members meeting every day in the metropolitan press, at dinner tables, at their hotels and boarding-houses, on the street and in the club, the representatives of every material, industrial, commercial, educational, moral, and religious influence in Great Britain, without feeling that it is impossible for Parliament not to know from day to day exactly the opinion of the country upon current measures and the trend of popular thought. New York is the real capital of the United States. No matter in what direction a railroad may be constructed or a telegraph wire strung, its ultimate terminus is New York. Every enterprise which is to be promoted, every scheme for the development of mines, of water-powers, or any other industry, seeks this city for money. Every business which has ramifications beyond the place where it is located has a representative and principal office in New York. Men who rise above the surface and outgrow the opportunities of their neighborhoods all come here. The intellectual forces of the Republic are likewise drawn by irresistible laws within our borders. The National Committees of the two great parties have their headquarters within our city, and conduct their campaigns with the limitless opportunities which can be found here and nowhere else. The capital of the Nation can never be moved from Washington, but everything which reaches out from this real capital into every part of the country is a power for good government and perpetuity of the Union.

It is here and in this sense that the Union League Club performs a national and patriotic mission. It is a centre which receives and reflects, and will do so more and more as the years go by, the republicanism of the United States. While performing this public service, and conferring upon the party and Government inestimable benefits, the social side of our Club can be constantly developed and improved. In all that constitutes a club home for clubable men it is now equal to the best in the United States. But it should be our effort to make it, as we can, from every club point of view, the most attractive and agreeable Club in the world. In doing this we can also still confer benefit upon the public. The efforts of this organization for the encouragement of American Art have been of great value and sensibly felt in the studio and gallery. Our monthly exhibition is the most unique, delightful, and important display of paintings to be found anywhere in the country. It has brought to the notice of picture buyers and picture lovers the fact that a school of American Art has already done work of permanent merit, and is full of brilliant promise. As the years roll by I believe that the periodical contest as to whether this shall become a purely social organization will more infrequently occur. The Union League, with its unequalled past, its splendid history, its long roll of names honorable and distinguished in the history of the country, will live through the centuries, on its public side a power for patriotism and the noblest results of free government, and on its social side the best equipped, the best appointed, and the most enjoyable of clubs.
